SENIOR VICE PROVOST FOR FACULTY AFFAIRS
The Promotion and Tenure Process Begins at the Time of Hiring

Letter of offer should be clear on the tenure clock

- Academic Position Description Guidelines: https://facultyaffairs.oregonstate.edu/guidelines-position-descriptions-academic-employees
The Promotion and Tenure Process is Ongoing

- For those on tenure-track or fixed-term appointments, annual reviews are important.
  - Position descriptions must be reviewed and revised as appropriate

- For those on tenure-track, mid-tenure reviews are critical

- For those with tenure, the periodic review of faculty (PROF), and post-tenure review process should be used by unit heads to inform faculty of progress towards promotion
Criteria for Tenure

- Tenure will be granted to faculty members whose character, achievement in serving the University’s missions, and potential for long-term performance warrant the institution’s reciprocal long-term commitment.

- Typical clock is 6 years – that said, individuals may go up before 6 years and will not be held to a higher bar. A decision to come “early” should be considered carefully.

- Tenure clock extensions are available

  - Requests should go to the Senior Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs at the time of the event

Providing Evidence for Promotion and/or Tenure

“Achievement with potential for distinction” and “Distinction”

- For promotion to professor, there are a set of metrics commonly used to establish distinction in assigned duties. These metrics help us distinguish between “output” and “outcome” and gauge the impact of a professor’s work.

In scholarship

- Influence on the direction of a field of learning or research as reflected in meaningful awards, h-index or some other measure of citation, leadership in collaborative work (first authorships), invited presentations/exhibitions, securing extramural funding that results in scholarly outcomes, evidence of broad-based change in communities served, innovative development of intellectual property that has had demonstrable economic impact.
Providing Evidence for Promotion and/or Tenure Continued...

In teaching/advising
- Leadership in instruction and enhancement of the educational experience of students and mentees, as reflected in awards, significant and sustained professional development (including for assessment), improvement in eSET scores, improvement noted in peer reviews of teaching, mentoring undergraduate students and graduate students through to graduation and on to successful careers, providing financial support for undergraduate and graduate students.

In service
- Significant impact on one’s academic unit and/or professional community as reflected in awards, involvement in significant university service (elected and appointed), leadership in professional organizations (elected or appointed).
Steps in Review of Dossier: Unit and College Level Review

Department/Unit Level P&T Committee Review

Department/Head P&T Review
  • Unit head’s office must inform candidate when the departmental/unit level letters are completed and added to the dossier.
  • Candidate has 7 days to add a written statement or rebuttal to either or both unit level letters.

College P&T Committee Review

Dean P&T Review
  • Dean’s office must inform candidate when the college level letters are completed and added to the dossier.
  • Candidate has 7 days to add a written statement or rebuttal to either or both unit level letters

• The candidate should also include information regarding their contributions to equity, inclusion, and diversity if this is identified in their position description.

The Faculty Handbook states:

Stipulated contributions to equity, inclusion, and diversity should be clearly identified in the position description so that they can be evaluated in promotion and tenure decisions. Such contributions can be part of teaching, advising, research, extension, and/or service. They can be, but do not have to be, part of scholarly work. Outputs and impacts of these faculty members’ efforts to promote equity, inclusion, and diversity should be included in promotion and tenure dossiers.

Tenure Clock Extensions
- The University will continue to automatically approve a one-time, one-year extension of the probationary period for all eligible tenure-track faculty who request an extension (opt-in) by May 1, 2021. Eligible tenure-track faculty must be in their probationary period during AY 2020-2021 with their mandatory tenure review to occur in AY 2021-2022 or later.
- PLEASE NOTE: a COVID-19 tenure clock extension is independent from and can be in addition to a tenure clock extension for an extenuating circumstance including leave taken for FMLA.
- Details about the request process are provided here: https://facultyaffairs.oregonstate.edu/tenure-clock-extension-due-covid-19-distruption.

Teaching Evaluations for Spring 2020
- The inclusion of student teaching evaluations (eSET scores) for summer 2020, fall 2020 and winter 2021 is optional.
- Faculty members will have the discretion to include or exclude these eSET scores in their reviews and dossiers, without prejudice with respect to their annual review or tenure review. This applies to all courses delivered these terms, including Ecampus courses.

Description of COVID-19 Related Impacts
- For dossiers being reviewed during the AY 2020-2021 Promotion and Tenure (P&T) cycle, faculty members, at their discretion, may include a description of any COVID-19 related impacts on their research, creative work, teaching and/or service.
